Extension of Agreement with Network Rail

SpaceandPeople plc (AIM:SAL) is delighted to announce that it has extended its commercialisation agreement with Network Rail for the provision of exhibitions, events and distribution activity for a further year until March 2023 (the "Agreement").

The Agreement covers Network Rail's portfolio of major London and regional railway stations as well as Victoria Place Shopping Centre in London, providing access to many of the highest footfall venues in the United Kingdom.

Nancy Cullen, CEO of SpaceandPeople said: "I am delighted that we have further extended our relationship with such a high profile and unique portfolio of venues. As we continue to regrow the business following the end of coronavirus restrictions, this will enable us to continue delivering innovative and exciting brand experiences and pop-up retail with Network Rail. "

This announcement was approved for release by Gregor Dunlay, CFO of the Group.
