Directorate change

SpaceandPeople, (AIM:SAL) the retail, promotional and brand experience specialist, is pleased to announce that Michael Brown is to join the Company's board of directors (the "Board") as an independent Non-Executive Director with immediate effect.

Michael has over 20 years of marketing and advertising experience, launching and leading two marketing services agencies specialising in events, sports and entertainment marketing. Michael's previous business, MKTG, is a sponsorship and experiential marketing agency that operates as an extension of the Out of Home advertising space using live experience to create compelling content for wider media campaigns. He is currently founder and CEO of Asociat, a community partnerships agency which helps brands create valuable partnerships with the communities they serve and he has recently founded Home Kitchen, a not-for-profit restaurant launching in 2023, that will recruit and train homeless people for a career in hospitality.

George Watt, Chairman, commented:

"On behalf of SpaceandPeople, I am delighted to welcome Michael to the Board. Michael brings extensive knowledge of the media agency and advertising market which will complement the Board's mix of skills and experience."

Michael Brown commented:

"As a brand experience practitioner and agency head, I have engaged with SpaceandPeople for many years and admire their outlook, diligence, attention to detail, enthusiasm and experience which is at the forefront of our industry."

"I'm therefore delighted and excited to be joining the board of SpaceandPeople to help them in the continued evolution and growth of their business at what is a critical time for retail and brand experience."

The following information is disclosed in accordance with Rule 17 and Schedule 2(g) of the AIM Rules for Companies:

Michael Brown (aged 57) holds or has held the following directorships or partnerships in the last five years:
